The International Study Conference "Between the Adriatic and Ionian Seas. Cultural heritage and territorial development" is the second stage of a travelling conference between Puglia and Greece in the context of the POLYSEMI project (Park of Literary travels in Greece and Magna Graecia), which is inspired by an idea of the University of Bari Aldo Moro (Lead Partner). The project is carried out in cooperation with four partners: the Municipality of Taranto, the Computer Science Department of the Ionian University - Research Committee of Corfu, the Ministry of Culture and Sports and the Region of the Ionian Islands. POLYSEMI is co-funded by the European Union under the 2014-2020 Greece-Italy Cooperation Program.
